On Sunday, April 27, 2014, President Bob Cote, along with Teresa Cote and other officers, welcomed eighty-nine arriving guests at the Marriott Lodge & Spa, Callaway Gardens in Pine Mountain, Georgia. Guests were provided with souvenir bags containing an event agenda, list of attendees, area information and a special jar of Mayhaw Jelly from the farm of Teresa Cote's mother's farm in Southern Mississippi. Mayhaw Jelly is a rare delicacy made from tart red berries. This was a special gift which all appreciated.

Sunday evening began with a social hour. Bob Cote welcomed guests and covered the events for the next few days, and Will Arant gave a prayer of thanksgiving prior to what was the first of many delicious meals to be served during our stay. The first night began with a wonderful seafood buffet.

A hospitality room was provided each day for guests to enjoy a selection of hot and cold breakfast items, along with coffee and juice before the beginning of each day. The hospitality room was also a place to visit in the afternoon for some refreshments and relaxation with friends.

Monday morning, seventy-seven guests boarded buses for what was to be a memorable first day. The first stop was a visit to FDR's Little White House in Warm Springs, Georgia. Built in 1932, this historic site served as retreat for the President, and is where he suffered a massive stroke and died. The group then moved on to the Warm Springs Pools, which FDR frequented for treatment in his battle with Polio. The next stop on the tour was a lunch of Southern fried chicken and all the trimmings and desserts, at the Bulloch House Restaurant located in a turn of the century home by the cofounder of Warm Springs. Several guests, who did not take the tour, decided to explore and enjoy the gardens that morning. Then, all guests had the afternoon free.

Monday evening, despite a forecast of heavy rains and severe thunderstorms for that evening, guests gathered for a social hour prior to sitting down to a wonderful outdoor barbecue buffet on the patio gardens of the hotel. Bill Watson offered a prayer of grace and guests once again enjoyed a well prepared meal.

In the early hours of Tuesday morning the heavy rains and thunderstorms moved in and guests on the upper floors were awakened by hotel staff at 4:30 AM to relocate to a conference room on the main level as there was a tornado sighting in the area. After a short stay of 40 minutes and hot coffee, guests returned to their rooms. Eventually the storms moved out and so did the golfers for the scenic Lake View course located on the grounds of Callaway. Other guests boarded buses for escorted tour of the Gardens, others visited the many local area shops and antique stores, and two guests hit the tennis courts. Golf winners for the event were: 1st place- Jack Clancy, Jack Bailey, Bill & Patti Alcorn, 2nd place - Bob Cote, Tom Hutchens, and Ted West. Also, Charlie Haygood and Jack Bailey won for closest to the pin and Charlie added longest drive winner to his take home prizes.

Tuesday afternoon was the annual business meeting presided over by Bill Webb along with Bob Cote. A moment of silence followed for those who were no longer with us. New members also were acknowledged. After a brief financial overview of our LMG finances, the subject of efforts to attract new members was discussed along with reminding all local members to support both the National Alumni Club as well as the Local Meeting Group by maintaining current membership.

Officers for 2015 were nominated and elected: President - Dennis White, 1st Vice-President - Jack Johndrow; 2nd Vice-President - Jerry Green; Secretary/ Treasurer – Bill Webb; H.C.S.C. Foundation Representative - Ed Savold. Meeting sites were decided, for 2015, Charlotte, North Carolina and 2016, Asheville, North Carolina.

Prior to the farewell banquet and awards dinner, guests gathered one more time for social hour before sitting down to another enjoyable meal. Gaylan Good offered a prayer of appreciation and friendship. After dinner, golf awards were presented by Dennis White, and Bob Cote was given a special recognition award for the planning and execution of a successful and memorable venue. Bob then recognized those members having achieved their 50 year milestone of service. He, along with Ted Seaman, presented the 50-year pins to those present along with reading a biography of their JCP journey. Those present for their pins: Bob Gibson, Bill Neill, Roger Sawyer, and Gaylan Good. Many of the other guests were recognized, with various humorous awards presented by Jeannette Thompson and Margaret Yeager.
