On Sunday, April 30, President Jerry Green, along with his wife Carol, greeted 56 arriving guests to the Marriott Resort & Spa Grand Dunes in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. Guests were provided with souvenir bags containing event agenda, list of attendees, area information and an assortment of treats.

The evening began with a Cheeseburger in Paradise outdoor party, overlooking the Atlantic Ocean. Jerry Green held a Jimmy Buffett trivia session and awarded the winners an assortment of prizes, which were both colorful and entertaining. A hospitality room was provided each day for guests to enjoy some light refreshments and snacks, as well as being available to visit with friends during the afternoons and evenings during the stay.

On Monday morning, guests took available free time to explore the resort or relax by the pools or ocean. Next on the agenda was lunch at Jimmy Buffett's at Broadway at the beach and the time to explore more of the resort area. That evening began with dinner at Myrtle Beach's landmark nautical restaurant - Benjamin's Calabash Seafood. Guests were treated with a sensational food selection along with fond memories. Following dinner, guests traveled to the famous Carolina Opry for an evening musical trip through the 60's, 70's and 80's.

On Tuesday morning, 19 golfers headed out to The Pine Lakes Country Club for an 18 hole scramble and lunch. Pine Lakes built in 1927, has the distinction of being the site of the development of publishing the sports magazine, "Sports Illustrated." Many non golfers set sail on the Barefoot Riverboat Princess for a scenic intercoastal waterway cruise which included lunch. That was followed up with a wine tasting at the Duplin Winery in the afternoon. Some guests simply took some leisure time to explore Myrtle Beach and enjoy the many wonderful vistas that this location has to offer.

On Tuesday afternoon, the annual business meeting was lead by Jerry Green and Bill Webb. A moment of silent prayer was offered for those members who are no longer with us. A brief financial overview of club finances and club memberships was then covered. Bill Watson, The National H.C.S.C. Board Member, gave an update on the recent National meeting held in San Antonio, TX last fall. Ed Savold National H.C.S.C. Foundation Rep. discussed the progress the Foundation is providing to those retired associates in need of financial assistance and how we can assist in finding those associates who may need help, as well as we can help through financial assistance.

Officers for 2018 were nominated and elected : President- John Gresham, 1st VP Clara Miller, 2nd VP Keith Booker, Secretary/ Treasurers, Bill Webb-2018, Bill Watson-2019; Foundation Rep. Ed Savold. Meeting sites for 2018, Nashville, TN. and 2019, Amelia Island, Florida were approved. The floor was open to discussion and Charlie Haygood brought attention to the small percentage of membership that actually attended these annual meetings and encouraged those of us in attendance to not only continue to solicit new members, but to contact those existing members who have not participated in recent years, highlighting the long term social and productive benefits from being active members. Prior to the Farewell Banquet and Awards Dinner, guests gathered one more time for social hour before sitting down to another enjoyable meal, and the presentation of the 50 year pin to four of our members. Charlie Haygood and Tom Forston presided over the ceremony with personal reflections both humorous and noteworthy. Those receiving their 50 year pins were: Rodney and Sharon Rice, Jack and Pat Bailey, Dennis and Ellen White and Bill and Susan Webb.

Wrapping up the evening, John Gresham awarded the prizes for the golf outing. For those non golfers there were numerous unique and amusing mementos given by Cathy Haygood and Teresa Cote. Jerry Green closed the event thanking all those in attendance.
