Yeomans, William N. (Nov 25, 2021) Yeomans, 87, of Upper Saddle River, NJ, passed away peacefully on November 25. Bill was born in 1934 and was the fifth generation to live in Upper Saddle River. He attended the one-room school in Upper Saddle River and graduated from Ramsey High School. He received a BA in Psychology from Hamilton College in 1955 and an MBA from Cornell University in 1957, followed by six years in the U.S. Army Reserves.

Bill worked for JCPenney for 25 years in their corporate headquarters in NYC. Twelve of those years were spent as Director of Training and Development. He volunteered with Junior Achievement in New York and served as Chairman of their Operations Council in 1980. Bill was active with his professional organization, ASTD, the American Society of Training and Development headquartered in Washington DC, and served as its President from 1986-1988. When JCPenney moved its headquarters to Dallas, Bill chose not to go and started his own consulting firm, The Yeomans Group.

Bill was active in his hometown of Upper Saddle River, serving on the Library Board in the 1970s and was the first president of the Upper Saddle River Historical Society in 1977 and was still active on its board. He was on the Environmental Committee for 13 years and the Historic Preservation Commission. He was co-chair of USR's Vision 20-20 Committee and served as the Town Historian for 20 years. He was also a volunteer at The Valley Hospital.

Bill loved to write. He had eight business books published, including one that was a "business best seller", 1000 Things You Never Learned in Business School. He wrote The Lore of Upper Saddle River, a history of the town, as well as numerous articles for the USR Historical Society Newsletter. He also wrote over 15 humorous columns for The Town Journal Newspaper in the 1980s.

Painting was a lifelong hobby for Bill, begun alongside his father when he was a boy. His watercolors were in several local shows and he is known in town for his painting "Once in Upper Saddle River" that depicts homes and businesses now gone.

Bill is survived by his wife of 52 years, Kay (nee Murphy), his brother David and his wife Sheila, his niece Sheryl Jordan and her husband Peter, and two grand-nieces, Edith and Anne Jordan.

Visitation will be held at Van Emburgh-Sneider-Pernice Funeral Home, 109 Darlington Avenue, Ramsey on Friday, December 3 from 3 to 7 p.m. A Funeral Service will be celebrated on Saturday, December 4 at 10 a.m. at the Old Stone Church in Upper Saddle River. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to The USR Historical Society, 245 Lake Street, USR, NJ 07458 or The Valley Hospital Foundation, 223 North Van Dien Avenue, Ridgewood, NJ 07450.

Long, Jere Michael (Dec 1, 2020) Jere was born on March 22, 1940 in Lancaster, Pennsylvania. He is preceded in death by his father, Gervase Francis Long; mother, Ava Marie Huber Long; and his brother, Joseph Francis Long.

Jere was a dedicated husband to his wife Charma Krailing Long for 59 years. A loving father to Michael and Julie; father-in-law to Tracy and Darren and adoring grandfather to Elizabeth (Addison), Caroline, Elliott (Kathryn), Lydia and Harrison. He was a devoted brother to his sister, Joan Long Mahan.

Jere enjoyed a successful career for 40 years with the JCPenney Company. Jere and Charma moved several times during his career and finally settled in Williamsburg, Virginia after retirement in 1998. He made many lifelong friends throughout his career. In retirement, Jere was active in his church, St. Olaf, and volunteered various ways in his community. He was a dedicated member of his homeowner's association for over 18 years and held many positions on the board.

It is not easy to put in to words the man that Jere was. He was a husband, father, grandfather and friend who was always ready to help out with words of wisdom, a simple favor or just to listen. Those that were lucky enough to know him well, loved him. His great sense of humor, generosity and honesty will be missed but not forgotten.

Funeral Services will be held on Saturday December 12, 2020 at 12:00 pm at St. Olaf Catholic Church, 104 Norge Lane, Williamsburg, VA 23188. We request that all attending wear masks for the service. Social distancing will be required. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to St. Olaf Church Building Fund. Online condolences may be shared at www.nelsenwilliamsburg.com.

Klippel, Rugh K. (Mar 26, 2020) Klippel, 90, devoted husband, father, grandfather, and friend passed away at Fellowship Village in Basking Ridge, NJ. He leaves his wife of 68 years, Dorothy Jackson Klippel.

Rugh Knudson Klippel was born in Hamilton, Ohio on June 9, 1929. He was predeceased by his parents Charles H. and Ruby K. Klippel and his brother Charles H. Klippel, M.D.

Rugh grew up in Hamilton, Ohio and then Columbus, Ohio. He graduated from North High School in Columbus, attended Ohio State University and graduated from The Central Academy of Commercial Art in Cincinnati, Ohio. It was while he was in art school that he met Dorothy Jackson, a student at the University of Cincinnati, and they were married on June 16, 1951. He joined the United States Marine Corps Reserve in 1946, during his junior year of high school and served as a Staff Sargent on active duty at Cherry Point, North Carolina and Miami, Florida during the Korean War.

He then spent 39 years working for the J. C. Penney Company, beginning in the Cincinnati store, then on to the Pittsburgh, PA regional office. In 1966 he was promoted to the New York corporate headquarters to serve in management roles for; merchandise layout, store design, and development. After retiring from J. C. Penney, Rugh spent several years sharing his expertise, time, and creativity with the International Executive Service Corps taking on multiple extended assignments in Ecuador and Turkey.

Rugh had a great fondness for Basking Ridge, his home for the past 54 years. He felt privileged to have had the honor of serving on the boards of the YMCA, the Somerset Hills Adult Day Center, the Basking Ridge Presbyterian Church and a number of other causes in the community. In his leisure time he enjoyed painting, gardening, travel, sailing, golf and spending time with his family and friends.

Rugh also leaves two sons: Jon Klippel, and his wife, Margaret Klippel and sons Bradley and Alexander and David Klippel, and his wife Shirley Klippel and their son Paul Klippel, all of Basking Ridge. A service of remembrance and celebration will take place at a date in the future. For further information, or to leave an online condolence message please visit www.gcfuneralhome.com In lieu of flowers, memorial gifts to the Basking Ridge Presbyterian Church, the Somerset Hills YMCA, or a charity of your choice would be appreciated.

Sauchelli, Robert (Sep 1, 2020) After a long and fulfilling life as a cherished husband, father, grandfather, friend, family man, and community and organizational leader, Robert E. Sauchelli passed away at home with his family by his side on September 1, 2020 at the age of 93.

Robert (Bob) was born on Feb 9, 1927 in Brooklyn to Italian born parents, Giulio and Giovanna (Giardina) Sauchelli. He met his lovely wife Madeline (Fiore) when he was only four and Madeline was two since both families lived near each other. Little did they know they would meet again and marry in December 1951 and have 68 wedding anniversaries.

Bob and Madeline had their first home in Woodside, NY having three children there, then moved to a home in Auburndale, NY where they raised their family.

Bob studied business at Pace University, NY. His father who owned an Italian grocery store in Astoria, NY at the time asked Bob to be his partner. Bob obliged knowing his father needed him and spent the next 20 years managing the store and building the business.

After they sold the business, Bob started a new career at JC Penney as a Senior Control Buyer in the catalog division, working at corporate office on 6th Avenue in NYC until his retirement, for many years alongside his younger brother Vincent who was an Art Director. (Vincent passed away in March 2020—see obit below)

At age 10 Bob auditioned and was accepted in the Boy's Chorus of The Metropolitan Opera Association. He was involved for six years singing in productions such as Carmen, Boris Godunoff, Louise, and La Gioconda. Also sang at Carnegie Hall and traveled to other cities. His brother Vincent was accepted three years later so they spent 3 years singing together in the chorus. Singing was a gift and provided great enjoyment for Bob throughout his life.

Bob's interests included collecting coins, stamps and memorabilia, singing in glee clubs (JC Penney's Choral group included) and church choirs, was an avid bowler through his life, was a big baseball fan Brooklyn Dodgers and then the Mets, and always got involved in community organizations, often taking on leadership roles.

Bob supported Cub Scout Pack/ Boy Scout Troop 272 as Unit Commissioner and was an officer on the parent committee for many years, was a manager of Little League baseball, was involved at St. Kevin's church while living in Auburndale, and most recently over the past 20+ years was involved in the church choir and president of the Young at Heart social club at St Thomas More Roman Catholic Church in Hauppauge, NY. Bob and Madeline made many wonderful and lasting friendships as parishioners at St. Thomas More church. Bob will be remembered as a strong willed and compassionate man, with a heart of gold willing to help anyone in need, quick to tell a joke and make friends, a generous and faithful man, hardworking, organized and thrifty. He took good care of and loved his wife Madeline and family very much, as well as enjoying the company of friends, and we know he was loved back three fold and blessed in return.

Bob is survived by his loving wife Madeline, son Robert J. (Regina), daughter Dorothy and son Christopher (both predeceased), daughter-in-law Lori, endearing and loving grandchildren, Paul (and wife Nicole), Lauren, Nicholas, Emily and Matthew, and sister-in-law Ann and family. He will be dearly missed by all. May he rest in peace

Sauchelli, Vincent (Mar 31, 2020) Vincent, 89 of Garden City, NY (formerly of New Hyde Park) was born on March 7, 1931, in Brooklyn, New York to the late Giovanna (Jeanne) Giardina and Giulio Sauchelli. He passed away on March 31, 2020, from congestive heart failure.

He is survived by his wife of 62 years, Ann Theresa Bennett Sauchelli and his daughters (and sons-in-law), Ellen Sauchelli (and Vincent Siegfried), Patty Sauchelli Henne (and Donald Henne) and Jean Sauchelli Moran (and James Moran). His grandchildren; Kathleen Henne Scotti (and Nick Scotti), Michael Henne (and Jessica Paulson), Dylan Siegfried (and Kristin Fitzpatrick), Daniel Henne, Megan Henne, Jillian Moran, Jake Siegfried, Matthew Moran, and William Vincent Henne were his pride and joy and will miss him tremendously.

He is also survived by his brother, Robert Sauchelli, sister in law Madeline, the family of nephew Robert Sauchelli (Regina, Emily, Matthew), the family of Lori Sauchelli (Nicholas and Lauren) and Paul Golish. He is predeceased by his nephew Christopher and niece Dorothy. He is also survived by many cousins and friends who loved him so very much.

Vincent was the son of Italian immigrants who came to the US in the early 1900s. They created and ran successful businesses. His mother Jeanne owned a hat shop, Roberta Originals. His father owned Sauchelli's Italian Delicatessen where Vincent worked in his younger years. He was the proudest American and served his country in the United States Air Force during the Korean War. Vincent was blessed with many talents. He had a beautiful singing voice and sang with The Metropolitan Opera as a boy.

He was a talented and creative artist who had a long and successful career as a graphic designer. As an art director for the JCPenney Company, he took great pride in producing its catalog and direct mail programs. His brother Robert (see obit link above) worked at JCP as well and together they enjoyed singing with the JCPenney Pipers, planning company golf outings and bowling with the company league. It was with this league at Madison Square Garden where Vincent bowled a perfect 300 game. He made many wonderful friends that he cherished all his life. In his retirement, he founded Sauchelli Graphics. Design work was his true passion, creating logos and marketing materials for many local businesses ... he never truly retired. In his later years, he loved to make personalized cards for his family, friends and the wonderful, loving and caring staff at The Bristol in Garden City.

Vincent spent much of his free time doing good for others, volunteering his time and talents to Holy Spirit Parish, Sacred Heart Academy, St Thomas the Apostle Youth Group Summer Theatre and many more organizations. He shared everything he had, with his kids and grandkids, his friends and neighbors, and anyone in need that he met along the way.

Private family services will be held at Fairchild Sons Funeral Home in Garden City, NY on Thursday, April 2nd, 2020. Interment will follow at Holy Rood Cemetery in Westbury, NY. A Memorial Mass and celebration of his life will be planned as soon as it is possible at Holy Spirit Church in New Hyde Park.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to Tiegerman, a wonderful school supporting individuals with developmental disabilities and autism spectrum disorders. This can be done online at www.tiegerman.org/donate (in memory of Will Henne's grandpa, Vincent Sauchelli) or via mail to 100 Glen Cove Avenue, Glen Cove, NY 11542.

Saddler, Charles Dean (Jun 14, 2020) It is with immense sorrow we announce the passing of Charles Dean Saddler, 88, of Brewster, NY.

Dean was born on March 26, 1932, in Columbus, Ohio to Paul Dean and Inez (Hale) Saddler. On April 8, 1956, he married Doris Jean Steigerwald and together they raised two amazing daughters. Sadly, Doris passed away in 1992. On May 21, 1994, Dean married Andrea DiBrienza.

Dean studied Theology at Otterbein University and received a Bachelor's from Ohio State University. Dean had a long and storied career with JC Penney. Over 40 years, his work took him from Columbus, Ohio, to Pittsburgh, to Morristown, NJ (where he raised his children) and eventually Denton, Texas. Dean always said he never worked a day in his life – because he truly loved what he did. He retired in 1993 a Vice President of Marketing Research.

His family was the most important thing to Dean, and he was extremely proud of them. He loved spending time with his family, but nothing brought him more joy than spending time with his grandson, Nicholas. Faith was important to Dean and he was an active member of the Drew United Methodist Church, holding numerous leadership positions over the years.

Dean is survived by his beloved wife Andrea, his loving children, Dena and son-in-law, Kevin Keey of Denton, Tx and Debra and son-in-law, Gerald Moore and his grandson, Nicholas Dean Saddler of Knoxville, Tn. He is also survived by his nieces who had a special place in his heart. For all those who were fortunate to have known and loved him, Dean will be greatly missed.

As soon as allowed, we will have a Memorial Celebration to honor Dean's life at Drew United Methodist Church in Carmel, NY. Cremation will be private at Ferncliff Cemetery Hartsdale, NY.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests contributions in Dean Saddler's memory to: Drew United Methodist Church, 28 Gleneida Avenue, Carmel, NY 10512 my-site-108699-101868.square.site/.
